

A day in the life of Sister Mary Ann Spanjers

4:50 a.m. Rise, personal time of prayer with Jesus while enjoying coffee

6:00 a.m. Lauds in chapel with the six of us Sisters at San Xavier Convent

6:30 a.m. Mass in San Damiano Chapel at the San Xavier Mission

7:05 a.m. drive to San Miguel Cristo Rey High School where I teach theology to Juniors and Seniors

8:00-3:50 Classes, lunch duty, study hall, meetings with students and teachers etc. (the students are really neat young people, it is fun to be with them)

4:00-5:10 correct papers, plan lessons, meet with teachers, students, parents, etc.

Drive home to the convent

5:30 Vespers and Angelus in Chapel at the convent with the other Sisters

5:55 ish Supper (we take turns preparing Supper, when it is my turn I usually prepare it in the evening and ask one of the Sisters to put it in the oven)

--Supper is usually an hour or two since we do a lot of visiting about what we all encountered during the day and about all that is happening in life!

7:30ish correct papers, play cards, work on my laptop watch the news, go to the San Miguel volley ball games, prepare stuff for supper etc.

9:00 ish make the coffee for the morning, make my lunch, spend some time in chapel

10:00ish read and sleep!
